Phillies' New Manager.

BOSTON, September 26.—"Phil" Murray, of the Jersey City Club, will surely manage the Philadelphia Club next season.

While Murray is deeply interested in the Jersey City proposition, the offer that came from Philadelphia, was one that he could not withstand. There is no doubt at all that he was approached by the American League people, but the offer came too late.

ance at Louisville—Talent
Had Good Day.

NEW YORK, September 26.—Ironside, at the prohibitive price of 1 to 5, won the Rich Hindoo Stakes, about one mile and six furlongs, at Gravesend to-day. The Whitney colt had practically a walkover, as his two opponents, King Henry and Vendor, were considered to be outclassed by the favorite. Accountant, the champion three-year-old, was withdrawn early, as was Belmont. Frank Lord, a 12 to 1 shot, won the Holly Hindoo in a drive from Eddie Ware. Summaries:

FAVORITES GOT MONEY.

The Chosen Ones Won Out on a Muddy Track at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, KY., September 26.—Favorities got most of the money at Louisville Park to-day. The track was muddy and the attendance the smallest of the meeting. The feature race, a handicap, was decided off early in the morning. Summaries:

JENNINGS IN DETROIT.

Baltimore Man Will Have Charge of Tigers Next Season.

NEW YORK, September 26.—There will be several changes in the Eastern League next season, with Murray out of Jersey City, Jennings gone from Baltimore to Detroit, and Stallings gone from Buffalo. There is strong opposition to Stallings in Buffalo. Despite the fact that the club has hired a pennant this year, it is not rated as a money-maker, and the stockholders do not take kindly to that. Salaries are away up in the sky, and that, with an expensive circuit, has made the team anything but easy.

CITY THROGGED WITH PEOPLE

Animated Scene at Fredericksburg Fair Grounds When Judging Was Completed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., September 26.—To-day was the big day of the fair, and the people from many miles around came to the city in great throngs, forming a crowd at the fair grounds that made an animated scene. The judging was completed in most of the departments, and many exhibits were decorated with blue ribbons. The time and day was the best of the fair, there being no rain, which resulted as follows:

The first was a scrub race, two starters—F. D. Monette, "Split Rock" first; T. R. Collins, "Bob" second.

Second race, 3-4-mile dash, first prize, $20, four starters—Bud Green, "Rock" first; W. H. Simpson, "Full House" second; M. T. Biles, "Sally Ann" third.

Third race, first prize, $100, five starters—E. Utterbach, "Knight of Wooters" first; A. A. Huntington, "Twister" second; J. T. Tomlinson, "Colossal" third.

Fourth race, 3-8-mile dash, first prize, $50, four starters—A. M. Goldsmith, "Marrage Belle" first; G. E. Huntington, "Camden" second; E. Utterbach, third.

With races, first prize, $120, 3-4-mile dash—Hunting, "Richter's" first; E. Utterbach, "Indian Flower" second.

Resolved, That it shall be the sense of this body that Georgetown University must the University of Virginia on the athletic field, the following rules to govern the eligibility of men: Rules of eligibility in effect at the University of Virginia to apply as to the determination of the eligibility of any member of, or any one who may represent, the University of Virginia on any of its teams, and rules of eligibility in effect at Georgetown University to apply as to the determination of the eligibility of any member of, or any one who may represent, Georgetown University or any of its teams.

Similar action was taken at the mass meeting at Charlottesville, and last night the Georgetown Committee, which conducted the negotiations with Virginia, received the following telegram from Hammond Johnson, president of the Virginia Athletic Association: "Our manager is authorized to arrange a game with Georgetown. Congratulations."

November 10th is generally regarded as the date of meeting of the two teams.

While Murray is deeply interested in the Jersey City proposition, the offer that came from Philadelphia, was one that he could not withstand. There is no doubt at all that he was approached by the American League people, but the offer came too late.

President Dan Johnson has the highest opinion of Murray, and thinks he is one of the best managers in the country. It is thought that Johnson wanted him for the Boston Club.

Want to Move Courthouse.

The people of Bath county, Va., are investigating the legal aspects of the proposition to remove the courthouse from the present site for a distance of about one-fourth mile to a much more accessible and eligible location. The present courthouse is a very poor one and is situated on a hillside adjoining the property of the Virginia Hot Springs Company. That company desires this land, and a half acre, of land offering a better site, and to donate $10,000 toward the building of a new courthouse. The present courthouse site is but a one acre. The proposition will be accepted, and a new and more commodious modern courthouse will be built, if it is determined that the supervisors have authority to accept the proposed exchange.
